 - 1) to amend by inserting or adding text; or
 - 2) to amend by striking out text; or
 - 3) to amend by striking out text and inserting other text in its place.
 - b) An amendment is debatable, and requires a majority vote to adopt.
 - c) An amendment must be germane to (closely related to, or in some way involve) the motion which it seeks to modify and shall not be directly contrary to the main motion.
6. There may be up to two amendments pending at the same time, while the resolution or by-law is on the floor:
 - a) a primary amendment (an amendment to the main motion);

- b) a secondary amendment (an amendment to the amendment).
- c) only one amendment at a time shall be presented to the main motion and only one amendment at a time shall be presented to an amendment.

7. The Chairperson shall put amendments in the reverse order to which they have been moved and when all amendments are voted upon, the Chairperson shall put the main motion, incorporating any adopted amendments.

Reconsideration

1. After a matter has been decided by Council, that matter may be reconsidered during the term of that Council any time after six months after the matter was decided, without the need for a Council resolution that the matter may be reconsidered. The motion can only be made by a member who voted with the prevailing side and can be applied to the vote on any motion except a) an affirmative vote whose provisions have been partly carried out; b) an affirmative vote in the nature of a contract when the party to the contract has been notified of the outcome; c) any vote which has caused something to be done that it is impossible to undo.

2. After a matter has been decided by Council, that matter may be reconsidered during the term of that Council within six months after the matter was decided, only if Council by majority vote determines that the matter may be reconsidered and if notice for reconsideration has been given by a member who voted with the prevailing side and included in the agenda and can be applied to the vote on any motion except a) an affirmative vote whose provisions have been partly carried out; b) an affirmative vote in the nature of a contract when the party to the contract has been notified of the outcome; c) any vote which has caused something to be done that it is impossible to undo.

Rescind.

1. A motion to rescind (annul a motion already adopted) any action taken by the Council may be made at any time but only if no action has been taken on the motion. Such motion can be made and seconded by any member, take precedence over nothing, may be made at any time, requires a two thirds vote of the members present and it shall be debatable. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any member of the Council from making or remaking the same or any other motion at a subsequent meeting of the Council.

Debate

1. Except as otherwise provided, no member shall speak without recognition of the Chair.
2. Once a motion is made and seconded, the mover shall have the privilege of speaking first, and have the privilege of closing debate.

4. The member who has made a motion (other than a motion for an amendment or a procedural motion) shall be allowed to close the debate for a maximum of an additional three -(3) minutes after all other members have been given an opportunity to speak.

5. When two or more members wish to speak, the Chairperson shall name the member who is to speak first.
6. No member shall speak a second time unless all members have had an opportunity to speak once.
7. No member will speak on any subject other than the subject in debate.
8. Members shall not speak more than twice on a motion except with the consent of the Chairperson.
9. A member of Council may, at any time, rise on a point of order, a question of privilege or a point of information. All debate shall cease and the "point" shall be clearly stated by the member and, if applicable, ruled upon by the Chair.
10. A member may interrupt the person who has the floor to raise a point of order or a point of procedure when such member feels that there has been a deviation or departure from the rules of procedure and upon hearing such point of order or point of procedure, the ruling of the Chairperson shall be final unless a challenge is made pursuant to. If a member, while speaking, be called to order, he or she shall cease speaking until the question of order is determined, and, if in order, he or she shall be permitted to proceed.
11. A member of Council may, at any time during debate, request that the question, motion or matter under discussion be clarified or restated.
12. A member may ask a question of a previous speaker only through the Chairperson and the question must relate to the speaker's remarks but, in any event a member may ask a question of the Chairperson or of staff through the Chairperson prior to the motion being put to a vote.
13. If any member uses insulting or improper language to the Chairperson or any member, and refuses to apologize or withdraw his or her remarks when so directed by the Chairperson, or willfully obstructs the conduct of business, and refuses to desist when called upon to do so by the Chairperson he or she may be ordered by the Chairperson to leave the Council Chamber for that meeting, and, if he or she refuses to do so, he or she may, on the order of the Chairperson, be removed; and on making an apology to the Chairperson and to any member insulted by him or her, may by a majority vote of the Council be permitted to resume his or her place at such meeting.

Voting

1. The Chairperson shall put a motion to a vote immediately after all members desiring to speak on the motion have spoken.
2. After the Chairperson puts a motion to a vote, no member shall speak to that motion.

3. No member shall leave his or her seat or make any noise or disturbance while a vote is being taken or until the result is declared.
4. Unless disqualified to vote by reason of conflict of interest or otherwise, each member present, excluding the Mayor, shall announce his or her vote openly and individually, by show of hands, and the clerk shall record it, and no vote shall be taken by ballot or by any other method of secret voting, and every vote so taken is of no effect.
6. The Mayor, shall not vote except in the case of equal votes upon a question.
7. The Chairperson shall announce the result of every vote.

K. Appeal Ruling of Chair

A ruling of the Chair may be appealed to Council by a non-debatable motion. The member shall make a motion substantially as follows: "That the decision of the Chair be overruled." A majority vote of the members of Council in attendance shall be required to overturn a ruling of the Chair and this decision shall be final.

L. Improper Conduct

1. No member of Council shall speak disrespectfully of the Council, another member of Council, staff person or a member of the general public, or use offensive or profane language.
2. Any person making personal, impertinent, or slanderous remarks or who shall become boisterous while in the Council Chamber or addressing the Council and refuses to apologize or withdraw his or her remarks when so directed by the Chairperson, or willfully obstructs the conduct of business, and refuses to desist when called upon to do so by the Chairperson, may be ordered by the Chairperson to leave the Council Chamber for that meeting, and, if he or she refuses to do so, he or she may, on the order of the Chairperson, be removed from that meeting. If necessary the Chairperson shall seek the appropriate assistance from the Police.
3. Any person who:
 - a) breaches this by-law;
 - b) behaves in a disorderly manner; or
 - c) uses threats or profane language in debate,may be required to leave the meeting at the discretion of the Chair.

M. Procedural Reference Text
