The Seven Dimensions of Wellness –Continued from Mays Newsletter

Social Dimension

Social wellness refers to our ability to interact successfully in our global community and to live up to the expectations and demands of our personal roles. This means learning good communication skills, developing intimacy with others, and creating a support network of friends and family members.

Social wellness includes showing respect for others and yourself. Contributing to your community and to the world builds a sense of belonging.

Tips and suggestions for optimal social wellness include:

- Cultivate healthy relationships
- Get involved
- Contribute to your community
- Share your talents and skills
- Communicate your thoughts, feelings and ideas

Spiritual Dimension

Spiritual wellness involves possessing a set of guiding beliefs, principles, or values that help give direction to one's life. It encompasses a high level of faith, hope and commitment to your individual beliefs that provide a sense of meaning and purpose. It is willingness to seek meaning and purpose in human existence, to question everything and to appreciate the things which cannot be readily explained or understood.

A spiritually well person seeks harmony between what lies within as well as the forces outside.

Tips and suggestions for optimal spiritual wellness:

- Explore your spiritual core
- Spend time alone/meditate regularly
- Be inquisitive and curious
- Be fully present in everything you do
- Listen with your heart and live by your principles
- Allow yourself and those around you the freedom to be who they are
- See opportunities for growth in the challenge's life brings you

Special Thank You

Belledune Girl Guides

The first Belledune Guiding unit visited the Villa in Belledune and planted some beautiful flowers for the residence! This was made possible from the generous donation from the Village of Belledune, the Belledune Fire Department and the Legion! We would like to take this time and thank all of them for help making this happen! Our girl guides got to volunteer their time and give back to a wonderful community! Our 1st year has come to an end and was a great success! We hope to see all our girls back in September and hopefully a few new friends!

Yours truly Mrs. Melinda & Miss. Krista
